Discussion Questions

Week 3: How the Bible Reads Us

1. Read 2 Timothy 3:14-17. Do you function as if the Bible is “profitable” to read? How or how not?
2. When has the Bible been profitable by teaching you something you didn’t know? How?
3. When has the Bible been profitable by reproving (confirming what you’re doing right or conviction you of what you are doing wrong)?
4. When has the Bible been profitable by correcting (re-aligning you with what is good and right)?
5. When has the Bible been profitable by helping you train in righteousness (endure in doing good over the long haul)?
